Dear Senator Dirksen:

I thought you might be amused by the enclosed photograph from the French weekly magazine Paris Match, in which you are identified as "Averell Harriman."

It was a pleasure to meet you when my predecessor, [redacted] and I visited your office on 22 April 1968 and I much appreciate the time you gave us from your busy schedule. Please call on me at any time I can be of assistance.

Sincerely,

SIGNED
